These trends are following the national trends. The decrease in the College of Ed is driven mostly by the economy.

VI. Discussion Item – How often should we revisit the Graduate Faculty Criteria?

• 2007 – Council reviewed the guidelines for Graduate Faculty Criteria (GFC)
• Asked departments to review their GFC and update any GFC older than 2000 including statements relating to adjunct and lecturers
• Departments use this criteria for appointing individuals to the Graduate Faculty
• The Graduate Council has developed guidelines for departments to use in developing their own standards.
• At what point should a department revise their criteria – if new PhD programs are introduced?
• Starrett suggested following the same 10 year schedule as the SAC Accreditation cycle
• Gray was in agreement with Starrett’s suggestion and added changes may be required when adding a degree at a higher level (more than likely the criteria would be the same unless there is something special or unique).

VII. Other Business

Chair McGregor called for a motion to discuss a short form from the MPA requesting to rename the program. Schwarz made the motion with a second from Fodor.
• Gray stated he would feel more comfortable with letters of support from a Development perspective.
• If approved, we would be setting precedence.
• The Council is just one step in the process.
• Starrett – where is the endowment coming from?
• Leslie Zenk offered to research to see if there are other programs named after individuals or entities.
• Steck – what criteria would we use to approve or deny?
• Starrett – served on a committee requested by the Provost and this was one of the topics. There was a draft policy on the issue of gifts with curriculum implications. Not sure what happened to the policy – naming, endowments
• Need additional information about the background and any processes in place at GA or campus level.

Chair McGregor called for a motion to defer making a decision to allow further research. Fodor made the motion with a second from Starrett.

The next meeting will be held on Tuesday, December 6, 2011 at 12 noon, in Cato Hall Room 228.

The meeting adjourned at 1:05pm.

Respectfully submitted,

Annette Parks
