

Course, Curriculum and Catalog Review Guidelines

What is the responsibility and authority of the faculty curriculum committees (department-level, college-level, and university-level including Undergraduate Course and Curriculum Committee and Graduate Council)? The responsibilities and authority of the faculty curriculum committees include but are not limited to:

- a. Approval of new or altered academic programs and courses
- b. Sensitivity to proliferation and duplication of courses and programs
- c. Assurance of adherence of curricular changes to university policies
- d. Establishing and enforcing academic policy related to the quality and delivery of instruction
- e. Assurance of pedagogical rigor
- f. Consideration of university-wide impact of any changes and appropriate consultation with departments, units, advisors, and/or faculty
- g. Consideration of discipline-specific accreditation implications