Policy Changes Approved at the April 19 Faculty Council Meeting

• Last Day to Withdraw from a Class
The revision changed the last day to withdraw from a class to four weeks later than the current date. The new Catalog will indicate that the last day to withdraw from a class is the tenth week of the semester.

• Credit for Military Training.
The revision to existing policy was to delete that military training credit must be part of the student's first 30 hours at UNC Charlotte.

Revised Policy in the new Catalog: The University will approve academic credit for military training equivalent to UNC Charlotte courses required for the students' major, minor, or General Education requirements and up to three hours of elective credit. The military training credit must be approved by the student's major Department Chair, College Dean and the Department that offers the course. Documentation of the training, such as a license of completion or notation on the student's DD Form 214, is required. The same requirements apply to transfer or military training credit approved by another institution. Contact the Registrar's Office for further information.
